8 - What are the best aspects of this course?

Response Rate	7/12 (58.33%)
• Professor Bett's lectures are entertaining and insightful. The material is interesting and the grading is easy. • Fergus is an amazing TA. He is extremely knowledgeable, and sections were very helpful in helping me better understand the material. he was able to facilitate discussion among students that added another dimension to the class. He was also very good at giving feedback, specifically with the papers we had to write. • No major exams but still quizzes so you have to keep up with the material. • TA absolutely amazing! Content interesting. Professor very clear and easy to follow. • class • I loved section; my TA was absolutely incredible. Ferghus not only taught me how to write a philosophy paper, which doubtlessly made my work in this semester easier and gave me all the preparation I need for my future work in philosophy, but also did an excellent job mediating constructive learning and conversation in section every week. I cannot thank him enough for everything that he's done for me and my peers. While I understand that Prof. Bett's lecture style did not work for every student, I thought that it was very effective. I also appreciated the lecture notes being available on Canvas so that I could review for the quizzes. • I love the fact that Professor Bett will guide us through the readings (they can be long and dense at times), and upload the lecture notes on Canvas in case we missed anything. The TA I had for this class is amazing, giving us a great run through of the material we cover each week and gives great feedback on discussion topics and on our papers.

9 - What are the worst aspects of this course?

Response Rate 5/12 (41.67%)

- it should be a writing intensive
- not sure
- writing paper
- The quizzes, especially the one on Aristotle, are quite content-heavy. I feel as though it added to the quality of the course, though--I appreciated the challenge.
- Nothing. Absolutely perfect for me.

10 - What would most improve this class?

Response Rate 5/12 (41.67%)

- writing intensive
- not sure
- one more grade
- n/a. It was an incredible first philosophy course.
- I love the class as is.

11 - What should prospective students know about this course before enrolling? (You may comment on any aspect of this course such as assumed background, readings, grading systems, and so on.)

Response Rate 4/12 (33.33%)

- just do the reading and you'll be fine.
- nothing
- It's a great first philosophy course to take; it gave me exactly the foundation of knowledge that I needed for philosophy.
- You do not need to know anything about philosophy or ancient Greek history at all. Even if you don't know anything, Professor Bett's lectures will guide you through Greek philosophy in a very concise manner. It is honestly my favorite lecture-based class. The readings can be long and dense, but going to the lectures will help immensely. There aren't any midterms or finals, which I absolutely love. Instead, there are three quizzes and three papers, and I thoroughly enjoy preparing for them. As long as you go to lecture and do the readings, you will thrive in this class.
